MENLO PARK RECORDER

ESTABLISHED 1924

VOLUME 21 — MENLO PARK, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JUNE 23, 1944 — NUMBER 34

★ BRIEFS by PORTIA ★

Plots, like Gaul, may be divided into three parts. First, the conspiracy, which, like the rhumba, is a radical movement known to flourish in southern climes; then the fictional plot—that unknown quantity of the cinema writer, while the third plot of the garden variety is to the enthusiast what a canvas is to an artist and late June finds amateur horticulturists working out the design and color of their garden compositions.

Remember those carefree days of club steaks and extra pats of fourteen carat butter? Now, it is the plants who must be fed. Their vitamin requirements run the gamut of the alphabet with a speed that has a P-38 at top speed looking like Aunt Abigail's electric runabout trying to climb Nob Hill.

What happened to the rugged gardens of grandma and grandpa before vegetation became vitamin conscious? Our tomatoes turn up their noses and toeses at the stuff that passed for plant food a couple generations ago. The softies! But aren't we all? These days moppets don't learn the ABC's they take them in capsules and mama and papa, too, are becoming letter perfect.

Speaking of small fry, not all the males heading to camp are G.I. material. Next week a trio of Menlo boys fare forth—John Walling, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Walling, and Willis Lyon, son of the Richard W. Lyons are pitching their tent near Los Gatos while small Bill Corbus, son of the William Corbus will roll up in a sleeping bag Sonoma way.

* * *

With camps in mind there is a red-letter date on the June leaf of the '44 Calendar, June 25, the opening of the Summer Camp of the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Menlo Park. A boon to busy mothers in these days of war activities will be the bus service which will pick up and deliver day campers.

IT ISN'T OFFICIAL BUT . . .

It isn't official but we heard a rumor that one of the brightest highlights of the Wagons West Jamboree will be the moment a young Atherton matron trills the old time ditty "She's Only A Bird In A Gilded Cage."

It isn't official but a square-cut diamond worn on the fourth finger of the right hand, which in this case is the left one, of a very vital Miss who has made a profession of decorating the homes of others, indicates she soon will be dreaming up a stunning interior for a home of her own.

It isn't official but there will be a furnished house for rent (line forms on the left) come July when a young Navy wife takes off for the East coast to join her lieutenant J.G.

Elections can mean more than conventions with smoke-filled rooms in Chicago. The Menlo Players Guild do it the easy way. Preceding their election meeting on Friday June 30th they will enjoy a pot luck supper. A double fudge layer cake would snare my vote any day. The supper hour is seven o'clock, the place, the Menlo Park Realty Company on Ravenswood.

* * *

Speaking of supper parties—this being the month of June we'll let you in on the best "Bride-of-the Month" story. A modern version of the old shell game—the other day one of our newest brides, name ?, a military secret of course, planned a dinner, with oysters on the half-shell as first course. Just before the guests arrived she was informed by a distracted cook that there were only half the required number of blue points, and I don't mean the Ration Book Variety. The O.O.O.-N.B. in telling the story later, confessed that when she ordered things she expected to find a full fledged oyster on EACH shell.

While we are still doing a John Charles Thomas, "Home on The Range", ours being the kitchen variety, how would you like a recipe? With deep purple patent leather-appearing eggplant dressing up the vegetable stalls these days here's one you and the family should relish.

Cover the bottom of the frying-pan with oil. When sizzling, add one sliced eggplant with its skin on. Brown, then remove the eggplant to a casserole and add to the frying-pan three or four sloced onions, one or two sliced green peppers, four or five sliced tomatoes, all with their skins on. Simmer these for ten or fifteen minutes, pour over the eggplant. Add salt, pepper, a bay-leaf and a pinch of sugar. Bake in a 350 degree F. oven for a half hour. The next night, if the family has left a slice or two, this dish needs only to reheated on top of the stove.

Come the first weekend in July a member of the Menlo Circus Club will have to make like a whirling Dervish to take in all the festivities. From Saturday, July 1, through Tuesday, July 4, the quartet of days is a crowded as the 5:20 commute leaving Third and Townsend.

First of the gay events is the dinner-dance Saturday evening, July 1. Attendance at this affair is by reservation only.

Come Sunday, July 2, members will rise from their downies, collect moppets, polaroid glasses, boots and saddles and fare forth to the traditional mid-summer gymkana which begins at 10:30 with a dozen scheduled events. Three English horsemanship events have been planned, one for children between the ages of 13 and 18, one for children under 8 years, and one for children 9 to 12 years. Judging will be on set and hands at a walk, trot and canter.

Bending poles and musical chairs are two contests arranged for children over 13 years, as is a western horsemanship event; one of these also has been planned for the younger riders.

Open to all riders will be the western trail class in which horses are to be shown on a loose rein at a walk, dog trot, and lope.

Monday's feature is a moonlight ride through the cool countryside. Members will leave the stable at 6 o'clock equipped with everything but Ration K to barbecue at the Shack.

The Club pool is the center of interest for the Fourth of July with a swimming meet scheduled for 2:30 o'clock. Contestants will be allowed to enter only two events and prizes of ribbons and War Stamps will be awarded to first and second place winners receiving ribbons. Emblems will be presented to all who participate.

For adult fun a nightgown relay with six swimmers on a team has been written into the race schedule. Dizzy Izzy relays and egg and spoon races also will have a place on the meet's time table.

The children's dinner party will be preceded by entertainment at 5 o'clock with dinner served at 6.

For adult members and guests by-reservation-only barbecue dinner has been planned for 7:30 p.m. Because of this schedule, the usual buffet luncheon on Tuesday and the barbecue on Thursday have been canceled for the week of the Fourth but will take place the following week.

The red badge of courage goes to William Mahaney. He had business in Washington, D.C., and with the complete confidence of a doting father took along his young son, Michael, age four. Michael is to visit his grandmother in the Capitol City. Latest communiques from the cross continental tour have Father and Son both doing well.

Skilled riders on spirited mounts will vie for exciting trophies at the Open-House Horse Show being held Sunday afternoon at the L. D. Lockwood Farm, 296 Atherton Avenue.

Among the classes open to all will be those for three-gaited, five-gaited and stock horses. Four events have been scheduled for children. A special hackney exhibition will be given by Mrs. Charlotte Anderson. Judges will be Captain Fred W. Egan, Maxwell C. McNutt and George Edwards.

Salvage Disposal Instructions

In answer to the many inquiries as to where to deposit materials for salvage, the Menlo Park War Council has prepared this list of depots and the methods for preparing them so as to make a minimum of handling. Following these simple instructions it not only lessens the burden of collection but material finds its way much faster to points of reclamation where it is critically needed.

WASTE PAPER

Wrap your papers and magazines in separate bundles about one foot high. They should be well-wrapped so they will not fall apart in handling. Place them beside your garbage cans. The garbage man will collect all wrapped bundles of papers and magazines.

The shortage of waste paper at the paper mills is becoming increasingly critical.

USED FATS

The supply of inedible or industrial fats remains insufficient for military, industrial and civilian uses and they are still on the list of strategic and critical materials.

Bring your used fats to your retail meat shops where you will receive two red points and four cents per pound for them.

TIN CANS

Tin cans are on the list of critical materials needed.

Bring all tin cans, flattened and clean, to the REAR door of 525 Santa Cruz avenue. Entrance from Merrill avenue.

For further information regarding salvage, telephone Menlo Park War Council, Menlo Park City Hall, P.A. 24658.

Atherton Bond Sale Third Completed

Thirty-two per cent of Atherton's quota of $517,000 in bonds in the current Fifth War Loan Drive have been sold. This is considerably higher than in most sections, however, to meet the remainder of the quota, citizens of the community are urged to dig deeper—buy the extra bonds our government has requested—and needs. With your purchases you can show that Atherton is "Backing the Attack."

An attempt is being made to call at every home in Atherton but in the event you are overlooked, the War Finance Committee asks that residents do their part by contacting the captain in your sector or call the committee office in the Town Hall, P. A. 7472 or 2-2032.

Captains in the Atherton sectors are: Colonel Benjamin H. L. Williams, sector 1; H. E. Watson, sector 2; Mrs. W. H. Boren, sector 3; Thomas Packham, sector 4; Leslie Nichols, sector 5; and Blake Darling, sector 6.

Did you ever hear of the time the son of a Stanford Psychology Prof. had his father and the personnel of the department baffled?

The small son during his brief life had been operating on the theory of self-expression with the complete approval of his parents and their text books. One afternoon while Mama and Papa entertained the department staff, son retired into the dining room and when host, hostess and guests gathered about the tea table all the open-faced sandwiches were slumped sadly face down in the silver trays. The small son had turned over each and every tea time masterpiece.

Tea was forgotten while psychology authorities went into conference to discover a MOTIVE. It is rumored less modern methods than self-expression were used to adjust the aforementioned small son to daily living.

I'm wondering if the United Nations don't feel General Charles de Gaulle has reversed his last open-faced sandwich?

This summer the smart (smart meaning both sensible and fashionable) vacation is being spent at home. Why not buy War Bonds with the money the budget had under the heading, Vacation Trip?

Weekly Recordings

After a month away from town, Fire Chief Thomas Cuff has returned home to pick up where he left off.

Sent to Billings, Montana by the National Board of Fire Underwriters as an advisor in the reorganization of that city's fire department, Chief Cuff no doubt did a bang-up job.

It isn't any wonder that Martin Johnson scans the War editions so anxiously. He has one paratrooper son (Whitey) in the initial invasion of France and another (Wendell) with Admiral Nimitz in the Jap trouble now flaring.

* * *

We certainly enjoyed Larry Johnston's story of the hot mud bath he wrote for the current issue of the Lions Club "Growler." In company with Mario Paccioretti and Fil Giannotti, he visited a Napa County grape juice factory, and on the return home, side tracked to Calistoga, at the local grocer's suggestion. What happened at the mud bath is Larry's story. If his face is still red—it isn't sunburn.

HARRY LUSK REOPENS ELECTRIC REPAIR SHOP

If your electric shaver is on the blink from your wife's trimming the hedge or your stacked up or otherwise unusable electric appliances are awaiting the war to end for a repair job—feel relieved! Harry Lusk is back in his shop again after working two years for the navy. Same location (see ad) same service, same satisfaction as in all the past years.

Service Men's Recreational Lounge Opens Saturday In Big Ceremony

Menlo Park's Service Men and Womens' Lounge opens Saturday night! This is fact not a rumor.

Dibble Hospital, through the splendid cooperation of Colonel Christmas, is furnishing an orchestra and other entertainment. Over 40 beautifully-baked cakes of every size, shape, and degree of beauty await the hungry soldiers and guests. These were donated by the various groups of public spirited clubs and citizens who believe in the good of the lounge. Coffee and other refreshments will be in abundance.

Last minute technicalities pertaining to laws and regulations were ably handled by our busy Mayor Donald Fisher who has been an ardent booster of the lounge idea from its inception.

Pretty hostesses will be on hand to extend to the visitors a friendly Menlo welcome and city and military officials will be well represented alongside the proud AWVS ladies who have worked so hard and earnest in bringing about the completion of the almost impossible task of outfitting and refinishing a once bare building. Their patience has been rewarded—for certainly the recreational center they call the "Lounge" is something to be proud of.

The public is welcome to attend the opening which officially takes place Saturday night at 8 p.m.

Menlo Drive Lags Only 1-3 Pledged!

A War Bond premiere "And The Angels Sing" was shown at the Menlo Theatre on Tuesday night, June 20. A very interesting and well-planned program was also presented at the Ravenswood auditorium by the East Palo Alto Grange. The many Third Army Volunteer Salesmen of Menlo Park and Unincorporated areas redoubled their efforts to make these two shows a success.

Long Way From Goal.

We are still a long way from our goal and we need the support of everyone in our community if we wish to attain our quota of $423,000, of which only one-third is subscribed.

Hundreds of thousands of our fighting men are enduring hardships, living under the worst possible conditions AND BUYING WAR BONDS. Let us all fight by their side in the great battle now raging in the Pacific and on the hard, long march to Berlin.

BUY MORE BONDS.

NEW DRESS SHOP TO OPEN THURSDAY

If popularity has anything to do with success, Norah's Dress Shop (next to Stanford Park Market) should become a permanant Menlo Park institution in no time at all. The two new proprietors are entering into their first business enterprise..

Charlotte Artru and Norah Walters, the two partners, have been leaders of the Mariners, Girl Scout Troop for some time and have been doing a noteworthy job with the group. Norah Walters has had six years experience dressmaking with the Children's Players Guild in Palo Alto, where she was costume designer.

The new shop, to open Thursday, June 29, will carry a complete line of ladies' ready-to-wear, hosiery and lingerie as well as a full line of childrens stockings, underwear, etc.

GREYHOUND CAFE HAS NEW OWNER

S. G. Talbot of Redwood City has taken over the operation of the Greyhound Cafe. Mrs. Hoss, former owner, has temporarily retired from business.

Southern San Mateo County Junior League BASEBALL

It looks like all roads will lead to Menlo Park Recreation Center the coming Sunday when Las Lomitas and Ravenswood come to grips in the 1 p.m. contest. This will be a real crucial game which means that either team must win to be in the past half pennant struggle. The 3 p.m. contest wil see two well-matched teams of youngster Menlo Oaks and Stanford Park in a "do or die" effort to keep in the winning bracket.

* * *

St. Joseph's, under the capable coaching of Joe Kelly is the team that will have to be stopped before a winner for this half of the pennant can be claimed. It seems to ben on everybody's tongue how the Saints improve in every game they play.

* * *

The game played last Sunday on the Menlo J. C. diamond was reeled off in the fast time of one hour and twenty minutes. Stanford Park and Ravenswood were the contending clubs with the latter team winning 5 o 1. It was a hurling contest between Lawrence of Ravenswood and Frank DeCompo of the Park boys in which Lawrence allowed three scattered hits.

* * *

This youngster Frank Vitale who plays third base for Menlo Oaks keeps himself in the calcium by his snappy performance. His catch behind the screen last Sunday was a masterpiece of fielding.

* * *

Sponsor Ray Fickes and coach Ray Farrell, two former star semi-pro ball players opine the club that defeats Ravenswood will be the pennant winners. However, you can't sell St. Joseph's, Las Lomitas, Stanford Park or Menlo Oaks short for they have that never-say-die spirit that makes pennant winners.

* * *

Manager Walter Thompson of Simmons Juniors in the S. F. Recreation Department Junior C league is anxious to bring his kids down this way and play one of our clubs. It looks like they can be accomodated later in the season.

* * *

James J. Nealon, whose aim is to keep boys happy, is making arrangements to have the players in our Junior C baseball league make a trip to San Francisco some Saturday afternoon in the near future to see the S. F. Seals in action at the Seals stadium. The Lions club is strongly behind the movement. With so many school buses in operation in this section it looks as if proper arrangements can be made to convey the youngsters to San Francisco—probably their first trip in that direction and their first opportunity of seeing "Lefty" O'Doul and his charges in league competition.

Ice Follies Drawing Large Crowds

The fun and frolic of a circus, old-world pageantry and 18th century ballet, colorful and exotic oriental fantasy, and a child's dream of a wondrous candyland all appear on the Winterland ice in San Francisco where Shipstad and Johnson's dazzling Ice Follies of 1944 opened on June 14th.

Colorful showmanship and imagination have been blended in the "Crazy Quilt Circus" episode of the dazzling new musical review on ice. Featured in the act is Betty Atkinson, "acrobatonics" star of the show, who leads the circus parade around the arena as she combines acrobatic ice skating with baton twirling.

Coolie girls, temple dancers, and radiant Norah McCarthy as the "Celestial Flower" are featured in the breathtaking "Oriental Fantasy" number of the show which presents some of the most novel and lavish costuming ever seen in an ice production, according to the management.

Every child's dream comes true when Phyllis Legg, the world's only stilt skater, as "Miss Peppermint," Ruby Maxon and Bobby Blake, and the cute gingerbread kids frolic among sugar-coated cottages and giant-sized lollipops in the delightful fantasy of "Candyland."

The elegance and grace of 18th century ballet in a formal French garden appears on the Winterland ice one moment, and in the next, an English "Derby Day" is depicted with the famous line of Ice Follies precision skaters appearing in their smooth striped trousers, top hats and tails.

Winterland's management today urged mail orders as a convenient way of securing choice seats. Checks or money orders should be mailed to Winterland, Post and Steiner, San Francisco 15, it was stated.

For Home Town News Read The Recorder

What news will Gen. Eisenhower get from us?

You know now what we've heard from him.

We've heard that Eisenhower and his Americans have hurled themselves like a thunderbolt against the bristling defenses of Hitler's Wehrmacht!

We've heard that they are smashing at our foe — sparing neither steel nor sweat nor blood in one final, furious assault that marks the supreme military effort of this War!

And what news do Eisenhower and his men expect from us?

Men and women of America — what the Invasion is to our fighting men, the 5th War Loan is to us at home!

For us, as well as for them, this is the crisis — the time for tremendous, overwhelming effort! Make no mistake! The 5th War Loan will undoubtedly be the biggest, most vitally important financial effort of this whole War!

If the 5th War Loan is to succeed, each one of us must do more than ever before — must buy double . . . yes, triple . . . the Bonds we bought last time.

Our men expect to hear that we are buying double — that we are matching their sacrifice as best we can — that the American nation, soldiers and civilians together, is making one gigantic effort to win this War!

That's the news our men expect to hear from us.

Will you personally see that they get it?

And here are 5 More reasons for buying Extra Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Dibble Hospital One Year Old

Dibble General Hospital celebrated its first birthday on Thursday, June 15 quietly and going about its daily business of restoring health to the bodies and minds of its thousand-odd patients.

The metamorphosis from the first rough proof to the efficiently polished picture that greets the eye today is virtually complete. The bare look of ploughed-up earth has been supplanted by the soft green of wide lawns. The corps of engineers has done a superb job.

Originally designed as a receiving and evacuation hospital for overseas patients, Dibble received its first convoy from the South Pacific area on an appropriate day—Washington's birthday. Since that time many men have entered its wards from overseas and from other military installations in this area. One year from the date of its inception, Dibble was officially redesignated as a specialized center for plastic and opthalmologic surgery.

Operating as such a specialized center, the best and finest of medical and surgical personnel and equipment is being utilized. Rehabilitation for the blind and for other patients has been progressing ambitiouusly under the guidance of specialists in those fields.

Under the command of Colonel William H. Allen, Medical Corps, Dibble is staffed by 85 officers, 74 nurses, with a complement of 349 enlisted men and 431 civilian employees. The medical officers have been drawn from every field of science: plastic surgery, opthalomology, neuropshchiatry, radiology, orthopedics—to mention a few. The bulk of the enlisted men are trained medical and surgical technicians.

MENLO SCHOOL BOARD ADOPTS BUDGET

A tenative budget of approximately $75,000, based on a school tax rate of 40 cents, was adopted by the Menlo Park School board Tuesday night subject to minor revisions and approval by the San Mateo County Superintendent of Schools, Miss Pansy J. Abbott.

It represents an increase over last year's budget to provide for two extra teachers.

A contract for repainting the Fremont School was awarded to E. A. Jorgensen of Menlo Park.

The meeting adjourned early as one member, John W. Morey, was absent because of illness. Those present were Louis A. Anderson and George Angus.

METAL LICENSE PLATES FOR COMING YEAR

License plates for 1945 will have dull white numerals on a black background, according to information received by the Touring Department of the National Automobile Club. This color scheme has been selected because the shortage of paint pigments makes it impossible to secure a wider color range. If plates in pairs are issued, 1350 tons of steel will be required to make them. However, rear and front plates are more desirable than single plates from the standpoint of law enforcement.

Plans Made For War Chest Drive

More than a hundred persons attended a meeting of the San Mateo County War Chest Thursday evening in the council chambers of the San Mateo City Hall.

There were representatives from practically every section of the county, and great interest was shown in the outline of the program that was presented for the coming campaign in October this year.

Judge Aylett R. Cotton, campaign chairman, in greeting the gathering, gave a resume of the successs of last year's campaign. He said "This is the second year for the San Mateo County Community Chest campaign. Last year our citizens were very generous, not only in their contributions but in volunteering their time and energy. Although our goal at that time was the largest that San Mateo county had been asked to raise up to that period, which was $225,580, that amount was exceeded by about $1,000.

Ralph T. Fisher, president of the California War Chest, whose many years of experience in organizations such as the war and community chest give him a workable knowledge in these campaigns and whose enthusiasm is reflected throughout the county, was introduced by Judge Cotton. Mr. Fisher, in his interesting talk, mentioned the fact that the National War Fund quota will not be any larger, perhaps not as large, as that of last year. An important fact that was brought out during the meeting was the information that 743 Chinese medical aids had been trained in America for service overseas, made possible through the funds collected by the War chest.

Ration Calendar

CHEESES OFF POINT LIST

Cream cheeses and specialty cheeses such as Monterey Jack, Swiss, Italian, Munster, Limburger, Caembert, Liederkranz, Grated-dehydrated, Gouda, Greek, Edam, Bleu, and Brie were taken off the list of rationed foods requiring red points last Sunday.

It was emphasized that the change in point values did not involve cheddar or Colby type cheeses which still retain their old point values.

There will be no change in present gasoline rations as a result of third quarter allocations, the OPA announced today.

"With the tempo of war in both east and west, we have no reason to hope for any expansion of civilian allotments in the near future."

About Palo Alto Yacht Harbor
By Mark C. Nesbit

The sudden passing of David Clark was keenly felt among the local yachtsmen and members of the Palo Alto Yacht Club, of which he was a commodore in 1932. He had intended to get a large cruising sailboat when the pressure of business let up, he often informed me. Dave and Birge Clark were the architects of the beautiful Sea Scout base built at the harbor in 1941 and many of the nautical features are attributed to Dave's nautical knowledge.

Ed Hardy's "Firecrest" and William Smith's "Polly" put Palo Alto on the racing map when they made such a fine showing in the Hearst regatta last Sunday at Belvedere. The "Polly" placed third in the Bird boat class and the "Firecrest" took fifth place in her class, in which 15 boats were entered.

Other boats familiar to local yachtsmen that were entered, having been bertherd at Palo Alto for the winter, were Imp, Ace, Sonata, Hvide, Sonja, and Rascal.

The Methodist church intends to hold their annual picnic at the harbor on July 2nd. I hope that other organizations take advantage of the city's facilities of tables, barbecue pit, wood and water (which is free) and make the harbor the scene of their outings too.

* * *

Next Sunday the third of the series of handicap races will be held by the local yacht club and favorable tides and wind should make it one of the outstanding races of the season.

Don't Fail Them!

With the battle of Armageddon now being fought on the fields of France, the Fifth War Loan Drive should bring forth an unparalleled outpouring of nation's dollars in support of our fighting men.

The 16 billion dollars that will —and must—be raised in this drive, will keep the vital supplies of war marching to the battle zones so that our armies may continue their march against the foe.

Your dollars—the ones you didn't spend on entertainment, new clothes, or some other item—will enable you to fight side by side with the men who carry the guns. Every time you buy a bond you will be taking your place in the foxhole along side some American son, or brother, or father. You will be helping him to carry on the fight—your fight—which he is risking his life to win. But with you there giving more and better tools for the job, he can do it better, quicker and with greater safety.

All over America a vast army of volunteers have "joined up" to sell war bonds in this campaign, augmenting the regular sales agencies.

Of the 16 billion, 6 billion is the share assigned to individual bond purchasers. This means that each wage and salary earner should invest an extra $100 in war bonds as his share. And he should plan to keep those bonds until maturity.

This war is being fought "for keeps". We must back our heroes with every dollar at our command. They will not fail us. We must not fail them.

A SOLDIER SPEAKS

So you're sick of the way the country's run
And you're sick of the way the Rationing's done
And you're sick of standing around in a line
You're sick you say—well, that's fine
So am I sick of the sun and the heat
And I'm sick of the feel of aching feet
And I'm sick of the mud and the jungle flies
And I'm sick of the stench when the night mists rise
And I'm sick of the siren's wailing shriek
And I'm sick of the groans of the wounded and weak
And I'm sick of the bomber's dive!
And I'm sick of seeing the dead alive
And I'm sick of the noise and roar and din
And I'm sick of the taste of food from tin!!
And I'm sick of the slaughter—and I'm sick to my soul!
I'm sick of playing a killer's role
And I'm sick of blood and death and its smell
And I'm even sick of myself as well,
And I'm sicker still of a tyrant's rule,
And conquered lands where wild beasts drool
But I'm cured mighty quick,
When I think of the day, when all this hell is out of the way
When none of this mess will have been in vain
And the lights of the world will blaze again
And things will be as they were before
And the kids will laugh in the streets once more
And the Axis flags will be dipped and furled
And God looks down on a peaceful World.

New Juvenile Home To Cost $25,000

Although the request for $50,000 made by Joseph Hyman, chairman of the County Juvenile Probation Committee and Frederick Peterson, County Executive was cut in half, the committee has gone ahead with plans for a new home.

Declaring the present institution is a disgrace, it being the former county jail erected in 1870, steps must be taken immediately to remedy a long needed revision of the present facilities, members decided at their meeting last week.

A wire fence is to be erected around the present structure to make a playground. To care for this, $1,200 was appropriated.

Although the building now housing the county's increasing delinquents was heartily scored, no fault was found in the institutions staff.

Harvey Culver spent last week end with his mother, Mrs. Josephine Culver and sister, Irene.
